

Most recipients never attended public school

All students must meet income guidelines to receive a voucher, then qualify under a second pathway. Initially, most students had to attend public school at least two semesters to qualify. But more paths opened for the 2013-2014 school year, expanding the program significantly.

Percentage who didn't attend public school

Sources: Indiana Department of Education, IBI research