PROGRAMS

Mentoring: Big Brothers Big Sisters of Central Indiana provides quality one-to-one mentoring relationships for youth ages 8-18 and adult volunteer mentors ages 21 and older in Marion, Hamilton and Johnson counties.

Clients include 1,225 youth; 1,225 adult volunteer mentors and 900 families of our youth. Our youth in central Indiana will receive 60,000 hours of quality, long-term, one-to-one mentoring in 2011.

Youth enrolled in the program face challenges that most often include living in poverty; having an incarcerated family member; living with guardians or single parents; and a high need for the guidance and friendship of a caring adult role model.

A 2009 survey of program alumni found that 42 percent of former Littles earned a four-year college degree, and nearly half of all Littles had household incomes of more than $75,000.
