PROGRAMS

Helping teachers help kids: Since 2000, Teachers' Treasures has distributed more than $35 million worth of free school supplies. Businesses, individuals and The Kids in Need Foundation donate materials for teachers to use in their classrooms. Nearly 2,700 Indianapolis-area teachers from school districts with 40 percent or more of the student population on free or reduced lunch programs are eligible to participate. For a small annual fee, teachers can "shop" once a month throughout the school year in a free retail-like supply store. Over 100,000 students benefit from the program annually.

FUNDRAISER

Dream Big! 2015 will be held March 18 at The Willows. The Teacher of the Year will be recognized and the Caring Spirit Award, highlighting an outstanding individual's contributions to at-risk children and improving educational opportunities, will be presented.
